This map shows tribal census tract boundaries and numbers within the subject county; nontribal census tract boundaries are shown outside of the subject county. Tribal census tracts are defined within a federally recognized American Indian reservation or off-reservation trust land for the purpose of providing data based on an American Indian hierarchy rather than by state and county. Where reservation or off-reservation trust lands cross state or county boundaries, the same tribal census tract number may be assigned on both sides of the boundary, and, if not constituting a unique identifier, the number may be repeated on the other side of the boundary.

* A following block number indicates that the block number is repeated elsewhere in the block.
